IPR Clauses for Advertising Space Order Forms

The following terms and conditions apply to Fair e-Catalogue Advertising Space Order Form:

1. The advertiser hereby warrants, represents and undertakes to the Organisers that no third party intellectual property rights or any other rights is or will be infringed as a result of the publication of any advertisement featuring the advertiser's products or services and / or in any material supplied by the advertiser to the Organisers in relation to or otherwise in connection with the advertiser's advertisement.
2. The advertiser hereby undertakes and agrees to indemnify and hold the Organisers and their agents, representatives, contractors and employees harmless against any claim, damages, penalties, loss or any expenses howsoever incurred in connection with any breach or alleged breach of any warranty, representation and undertaking given by the advertiser herein and any infringement or alleged infringement of intellectual property rights, including but not limited to infringement of patents, registered design, copyright or trade mark infringement arising as a result of the insertion of any advertisement by the advertiser or any agent of the advertiser in any Fair Daily, Fair Catalogue, Exhibition Pocket Guide, Hanging Advertising Banners or Standing Advertising Lightboxes or any other publications or promotional items or space published, issued or made available by the Organisers in relation to their Fair from time to time.
3. The Organisers reserve the sole and absolute discretion to decline to publish any advertisement if they reasonably suspect that the advertisement may involve the infringement of intellectual property rights or other rights of any third party unless the advertiser can, within 3 working days of being requested to do so, adduce evidence to the satisfaction of the Organisers that it has the right to place the advertisement and / or the advertisement does not infringe any intellectual property rights of any third party.
